RE: Unauthorized use of trademark

Dear Mssrs Jarvis,

It has been brought to our attention that you are using the trademark name Virus without authorization and in a manner which seeks to divert business to your company. The incidents of which we are aware include the use of the internet domain names rowvirus.com and virusrowing.com, both of which are directed to your web site. Additionally, the trademark Virus is known to be used in the meta-keyword section of the pages on this web site.

These unauthorized uses of this trademark are in violation of the federal Anti-cybersquatting Consumer Protection Act of 1999 which states:

"SEC. 3002. CYBERPIRACY PREVENTION.

(a) IN GENERAL -- Section 43 of the Trademark Act of 1946 (15 U.S.C. 1125) is amended by inserting at the end the following:

(d)(1)(A) A person shall be liable in a civil action by the owner of a mark, including a personal name which is protected as a mark under this section, if, without regard to the goods or services of the parties, that person --

(i) has a bad faith intent to profit from that mark, including a personal name which is protected as a mark under this section; and

(ii) registers, traffics in, or uses a domain name that --

(I) in the case of a mark that is distinctive at the time of registration of the domain name, is identical or confusingly similar to that mark;"

This law further provides for penalties of not less than $1000 nor more than $100,000 per domain name.
